FOR EMPLOYERS

Outplacement your staff will actually use

Twelve weeks of practical career support for each person you name, online, from the day you send us their name. Built for office, support and customer-facing roles.

You send names

Each person's name and personal email, not their work address, which closes when they leave.

We set them up

By the next business day. Each gets a welcome email saying you arranged it, and twelve weeks start that day.

They work out what's next

Roles they are close to, a resume for each, interview practice out loud and a real coach.

You hear how it went

Group numbers at week 4 and week 12. Never a named person, and you never see their work.

> Most outplacement is sold by the session. A$599 covers twelve weeks, whenever they need it.

HOW IT WORKS FOR YOUR PEOPLE

Twelve weeks of practical help, at their own pace

changing careers

What each person gets

Roles they are close to

A check of their own resume

A resume for each role

Applications for real job ads

Interview practice, out loud

A real career coach

THE COACH

A real Australian career coach reviews up to three of each person's targeted resumes or applications, and answers their messages. Messages stay open after the twelve weeks.

YOUR STAFF'S DATA

Our main database is in Sydney. You send a name and personal email only, used to set up the account. You never see anyone's resume, messages or work. Each person agrees to our Terms and Privacy Policy when they first sign in.

Uploaded resumes are deleted after 90 days. Everything else is deleted 30 days after the person asks us to close their account, apart from payment records, which tax law requires us to keep.

HOW AI IS USED

Resumes, applications and interview feedback are drafted with AI from each person's own words and work history. They accept or change every line, and a person, the coach, reviews whatever they send for review.

WHAT YOU GET AS THE EMPLOYER

A short summary at week 4 and week 12: how many people have started, are active, and have logged an application. Counts only. With fewer than three people, no summary is sent, so nobody can be singled out.

One invoice, 30 days, bank transfer or card. No minimum. For more than 20 people, ask us.

IS IT RIGHT FOR YOUR PEOPLE?

It is online and works on a phone, so people can start during their notice period and use it at any hour. If someone needs more support than an online service and a coach can give, tell us before you book and we will say so honestly.
